

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Twenty-Sixth Annual Report

OF THE

UNITED HEBREW CHARITIES

OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

MINUTES OF THE 26th ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the United Hebrew Charities was held at the Hebrew Charities Building, Wednesday, October 10, 1900.

A quorum of members being present, the meeting was called to order by the President.

Rev. Dr. K. Kohler offered prayer.

The report of the President was read and referred to the Trustees for printing and distribution.

The report of the Manager was read and similarly referred.

Reports of the Treasurer and of the various committees were presented and were all referred to the Trustees, to be printed and distributed as they may decide.

The following Trustees were unanimously elected: Jules S. Bache, Abraham Bernhard, Nathan Bijur, Mrs. William Einstein, Isaiah Josephi, Morris Mayer, Fred W. Marks, Harry H. Meyer, Hyman Sonn, Benjamin Stern, Cyrus L. Sulzberger, Mrs. S. Weinhandler.

After a brief address by Dr. Edward T. Devine, Manager of the Charity Organization Society, the meeting adjourned.

I. S. ISAACS,
Secretary.

tectors. By society I do not mean merely the representative few who have come here to-night, but the great human brotherhood that constitutes the world of man, and in whose behalf he ever exerted himself.

He was intensely interested in all and every movement pertaining to the elevation of the race, and no sectarian or race prejudices prevented his lavish outpouring of wealth, of heart and purse.

It was my privilege and pleasure to know Mr. Wolff intimately, and I learned to admire what sometimes appeared as an impenetrable character, and found beneath all only aspirations and impulses of the most humane and exalted character.

To the outsider he may sometimes have appeared as of an unsympathetic type; to his friends, however, who knew him, he was ever the genial, warm, outspoken man, with strong courage of his opinions, and not afraid to meet any emergency.

He will live in our memory for ever.

The other gift of which I would make mention is that of the Purim Association, which donated $4,000 to this society. This sum is the nucleus of what I earnestly hope will soon be swelled to a reasonably large endowment fund. In any case, the interest upon this money is to be used for the very useful and excellent purpose of furnishing clothing and shoes and other necessities for children, in order to enable them to attend school regularly. It may be unknown to some of those within reach of my voice that there are in this rich and prosperous city hundreds of children who are not able to attend school merely because they have not the clothing to cover them decently and protect them from the cold and the rain and snow. Caring for the children so that they may be properly taught and trained to become useful, self-supporting and self-respecting citizens, is a line of work which not only pays, but repays a hundred fold the money and the time bestowed upon it; and the community at large is inestimably richer for such activity, which is also of the greatest value to the individual benefited. There is great need of further endowments in this direction, and I would that I might be the humble channel through which additional sums of money might be induced to flow into the Children's Supply Fund.

While on the subject of education, I wish to call attention to the fact that our Industrial School has closed its doors. This action has not been due to any lack of success, but because we have come to the conclusion that there are or ought to be sufficient educational institutions to take up the industrial training of the children, whom we have hitherto had under our care, thus allowing the funds hitherto devoted to this purpose to be used for other pressing needs not otherwise provided for. Candor compels me to admit, however, that our Committee on Industrial training has not been able to find an institution ready and able to take up this useful work.

The last few months have been noteworthy in the history of the Jewish race for an outbreak of anti-Semitism in a far-away country, the far-reaching effects of which have been keenly felt in this city. I refer, of course, to the persecutions of the Jews in Roumania, and the consequent immigration of the refugees to the United Hebrew. It is neither necessary nor profitable to take the time now to rehearse a story which is doubtless familiar to you all; a heartrending tale of men, women and children deprived by a hostile government and a more hostile people of the means of earning a livelihood, because, forsooth, the poor victims of these heartless persecutors are of the same race whence came the founder of the very religion in whose name they wrongfully oppress their fellow men. Fleeing from persecution, misery and starvation, the emigrants naturally turned their faces toward this land of the free, and they have sought an asylum upon these hospitable shores. By hundreds they have flocked hither, and quick to respond to the cry of distress, a small group of Jewish philanthropists of this city has taken up the task of providing for these new comers by securing employment for them in towns and cities throughout the length and breadth of our fair land; meantime, clothing, feeding and providing shelter for the refugees until they should have recovered from the effects of their wanderings and with renewed strength to be able to fill adequately the places provided for them. It is most encouraging to remark in passing that most of these immigrants have been single men, or, at least, they have come without bringing their families with them, content to wait and earn enough to support their dear ones become wealthy, nor do we expect that the money will ever be returned to us. But not only does such a mode of procedure shorten our pension list and thus permanently lighten our burdens, but it also has a very important influence in restoring to the individuals to whom such sums are given, their self-respect and dignity and removes from them the degrading consciousness of being compelled to live from charitable doles. Knowing as I do the good effects that arise from this form of charitable effort, I cannot help but appeal again for additional funds which may be devoted to such a very useful and lasting good purpose. It is in accordance with social economy of the highest order, to treat in this manner the pensioners who otherwise aided would be helped only for the time being, instead of permanently relieved from the humiliating and inevitably degrading necessity of applying again and again to charitable organizations.

There is urgent need also for other special endowments, for our requirements are always indefinitely in advance of our resources. Especially have we felt the want of a fund wherewith we might adequately provide for emergency cases, where a moderately large sum once bestowed would prevent such cases from becoming recurrent.

The present fiscal year began under good auspices, but unfortunately the favorable conditions did not continue for more than a few months. There seemed to be a general business revival last fall; prosperity almost approaching a boom appeared assured and little difficulty was experienced in securing employment for those persons who applied to us and who were really desirous and eager to work. But, alas! it soon became evident that this pleasant state of things was not destined to last. The demand for labor became very much less active, and our society was made to feel it among the very first. For it must be remembered that it is the laborer, no matter in what vocation he may be, who is least fitted for his work, who is also the one that loses his position soonest when work becomes slack. And those who apply to the United Hebrew Charities for assistance in securing employment are, generally speaking, those who are least able to secure places for themselves, because they are the least capable workmen. It has been found that even when they are at work, that they are often hard put to it, to earn enough to support themselves and their often all too numerous families. As a consequence, even in good times, it is necessary to help a portion of such people with alms to eke out their insufficient earnings, but when, as was the case towards the close of this fiscal year, a condition of business stagnation arises, the very persons most in need of remunerative occupations are thrown out of employment, and on to our hands, with the result that the urgent demands for relief became excessive. No matter whether the depression this year was the result of ante-election agitation or not, the fact remains that such a condition did actually arise, and that the need of relieving distress due to lack of employment became so very acute that there was a financial shortage during the summer. It was necessary to secure more money, in order that the activities of this organization might not be compelled to cease. An appeal for funds was quietly made to that small but always-to-be-relied-upon section of our local Jewish community, which never refuses to aid the needy, and the response was a ready and generous one. About $12,000 was soon subscribed, and the wheels continued to revolve. Besides these special contributions at a critical period, and the welcome gifts of Mr. Schiff, which I have already mentioned, it gives me real pleasure to speak of two other donations that have been made to the United Hebrew Charities during the year just ended. Our tried and trusted old friend, Mr. Abraham Wolff, has once more proved the truth of the ancient adage, that "a friend in need is a friend indeed," by coming to the assistance of the Committee on Medical Relief, by donating the handsome sum of $3,000 for current expenses. The amount of good that can be done with such a sum, in relieving suffering and alleviating pain cannot be measured in dollars, for the grateful prayers and fervent thanks of the erstwhile sufferers have a value, besides which mere gold and silver sink into insignificance.

Since writing these few lines, relentless death has claimed our good friend. Let me drop tears of heartfelt sympathy for such untimely affliction to our entire community. In the death of Abraham Wolff, it is not only the family who is stricken, but this association loses one of its beloved founders and supporters, and society parts from one of its best and whole-souled pro-we cannot hope to do the important things that are entrusted to us.

The conditions amid which the Jews of the New York Ghetto are compelled to exist are slowly but surely undermining both that moral and physical health of which we have hitherto been so proud. The unspeakable evils that the tenement house and the sweat shop, as they still persist, inevitably produce in the way of depressed vitality, sickness, consequent poverty and death, are evils that it behooves us to endeavor to kill at the root. Every attempt to improve the tenement house, to remove present residents of the Ghetto to outlying portions of the city or to small towns and rural communities should receive our earnest help and active co-operation. Every movement that is honestly seeking to improve the moral conditions in the great gateless ghetto and to remove from our poor brethren the degenerating influences that menace the young people and the children, should receive from us the encouragement that it deserves. When we stop to consider the terrible ravages which that dreadful disease, consumption, is making among the Russian Jews of the lower East Side, a disease becoming widespread because of the noisome tenements and shops that favor its growth, we recognize that private charity is no longer able to cope with the question. There is urgent need of a hospital, provided by the State, for the care and possible cure of patients in the first stages of consumption. There is urgent need, too, of more open spaces, breathing places, small parks in our congested neighborhoods; of proper legislation and rigid enforcement regarding the erection and maintenance of tenement-houses, and a closer inspection of the conditions under which the tenement dwellers carry on their daily tasks.

Charity is not a new ideal, yet it must be progressive in its methods of application. Whenever we have achieved, it tells us there are larger achievements yet beyond. The deeper we go into its moral activities, the clearer and wider our vision becomes. We can see in remote ages a race of men, freer and stronger, because of our toils, and that must be our sweetest recompense that they may reap what we have sown.

I have only too incompletely endeavored to point out some of the many intricate problems that confront us and clamor for solution. We have done a year's task as best we might; there is another heavy year's work out for us. May we prove ourselves worthy of our task and may we, with God's blessing, meet together a year from now with the consciousness of good work accomplished, of suffering relieved, and of a twelvemonth more profitably employed than ever before, in doing our duty by our less fortunate fellowmen.

Respectfully submitted,
 HENRY RICE,
 President.

REPORT OF THE MANAGER.

To the Executive Committee of the United Hebrew Charities:..

The most noticeable feature of the fiscal year ending September 30, 1900, is the increase in the number of applicants who applied at our office for assistance. Our records show that 5,566 applicants applied for the first time, an increase of 1,024 over the previous year. Of recurrent cases, the records show a total of 24,692, an increase of 5,970 over the previous year.

A study of the new applications furnishes evidence to explain the increase in the number of this class of applicants. In the year 1898-99 only 24 per cent. had been in the United States less than one year, while 58 per cent. had been here over five years. In the year 1899-1900, this proportion has increased to 37 per cent. who have been in the United States less than one year and decreased to 48 per cent. who have been here over five years. If these figures are taken together with the immigration statistics for the year, it will be apparent that the increase in the number of new applicants is largely due to the extraordinary increase in the number of immigrants. In the year 1898-99, 29,088 Jewish immigrants arrived at the Barge Office. In the past year 53,687 of our co-religionists have landed at this port.

It is more difficult to explain the cause of the increase of 5,970 in the recurrent applications. There has been no special distress during the past year; the winter has not been over severe, nor have industrial conditions been of such a kind as to bring the poverty-stricken to our doors in such numbers. If one possible cause stands out more prominently than another, it is that of sickness. Not sickness of the acute, but of the chronic order. Illness that is due primarily to the unsanitary conditions in which our beneficiaries live; disease that is a resultant of the tenement and of the peculiar indoor vocations whereby so many of our dependents endeavor to earn a livelihood; occupations and surroundings which sap the vitality of the wage-earners and bring their families month after month as petitioners for relief.

The Work of the Medical Bureau will but substantiate these statements and make them appear even more forceful. Last year our nurses made 9,937 visits to the homes of our applicants and gave such attention to their patients as the time at their disposal would permit. During the fiscal year just ended our nurses made 12,480 visits, an increase of 2,543 over the previous year. It is safe to say that the number of visits made would have been even larger but for the limitations of our nursing staff. Our doctors made 3,037 house visits and gave 4,406 treatments at their offices. We furnished 1,312 bottles of stimulants, 440 bottles of cod-liver oil and maltine, 290 baskets of groceries, 244 surgical appliances, and 5,634 prescriptions were compounded.

Sixty-four maternity cases were attended by the physicians of the Lying-In Hospital, and 102 bundles of infants' clothing and bed linen were provided. During the past year a reorganization of our medical work was made, and it is hoped that under the new arrangement the medical bureau will be even more effective than in the past.

Employment Bureau.

The Employment Bureau, as heretofore, continues to make a satisfactory showing and to demonstrate the necessity of such a bureau as an adjunct to the work of our relief bureau. Under the system adopted last year, careful investigation is made to ascertain whether our applicants secure the positions to which they are sent, and for this reason the percentage of persons for whom employment was secured is lower than in preceding years. It gives, however, an accurate statement of the efficacy of this important department of our work; 8,960 men, women and children applied to us during the past year for positions, an increase of 1,193 over the preceding year. Of these, 3,538 have been in the United States less than one year, 1,232 from one to five years, and 4,290 over five years. Work was obtained for 4,176, or over 46 per cent. of the entire number. If it be remembered that 40 per cent of our applicants have been in the United States less than one year, and hence have but slight acquaintance with our language and customs, the showing made is a very good one. During the past six months the industrial situation has not improved, and at present positions for both skilled and unskilled labor are at a premium. This is indicated by the fact that while last year 5,387 applications for workmen were received from employers, but 4,283 were received this year.

Industrial School.

After mature deliberation your Board of Trustees decided to discontinue this feature of our work, and as a result the Industrial School was closed on July 30 last. During the ten months of its existence there was an average attendance of 213 pupils.

The following work was finished by the pupils of the school:

Supplies.

84 slips, 408 pairs of drawers, 190 sheets, 550 chemises, 371 towels, 217 skirts, 1 wrapper, 118 dresses, 36 shirt waists 19 corset waists, 46 gowns, 6 corset covers, 6 bands.

Work to Order.

218 aprons, 6 slip covers, 11 handkerchiefs embroidered 6 napkins embroidered, 1 gown, 20 chemises 12 towels hemmed, 3 skirts, 5 pairs of drawers.

Along with the other departments, the Supply Department shows the results of increased activity. During the past year 26,508 pieces of clothing, furniture, etc., were distributed among our applicants, an increase of 7,361 over the previous year. Among the articles of clothing distributed may be mentioned 4,573 pairs of shoes, 1,967 coats, 2,279 pairs of trousers, 1,524 waistcoats, 373 overcoats, and 1,905 dresses, etc. The itemized account of the distribution will be found in an appended statement. Besides the above, 2,112 half tons of coal and 261 sets of tools were distributed; 1,147 lodgings and 3,256 meals were granted to homeless men and women.

The Work Room.

During the past year the Board of Directors authorized the establishment of a work room for unskilled women. This innovation was along the lines of the policy of progressive philanthropy which believes that prevention is better than cure. It was intended primarily for that class of women, of whom we have so many, who by stress of circumstances are forced to be the wage-earners of their respective families, but who are without the vocations to compass such ends. Incidentally the work room is a feeder to the Supply Department, in that the donations of clothing which are made by our contributors are altered to meet the needs of our applicants. In the majority of cases the women who have been given employment in the work room were unacquainted with the use of the needle, but through the instruction given to them, have become sufficiently skilful to procure work which could be done at their homes. Since the work room was opened on December 1, 96 women and 5 men have been given employment. Of these women, 26 were deserted, 12 were women with sick husbands, 41 were widows, 15 were women whose husbands were unemployed, and 2 had husbands in prison; 16 of these women, owing to their approaching confinement, could not readily have earned a livelihood in any other manner. Of the above, 8 are now working on knee pants, 28 as finishers, 4 as seamstresses, 5 as buttonhole sewers, 5 as ticket sewers, 6 are working on boys' blouses, and 3 on aprons. During the ten months of its existence the work room turned into the Supply Department the following:

Manufactured articles—76 quilts, 129 skirts, 61 sacks, 419 pairs of knee pants, 329 pieces of underwear, 506 blouses, 155 dresses, 50 sheets, 115 napkins, 71 chemises, 78 infants' slips, 18 night gowns, 24 infants' shirts.

Garments repaired—745 pieces of underwear, 224 skirts, 529 waists, 32 wrappers, 53 overcoats, 161 pairs of men's trousers, 94 pairs of knee pants, 209 waistcoats, 9 reefers, 200 sacks, and 602 pairs of shoes.

Transportation.

During the year, 351 persons were granted transportation to Europe, as compared with the total of 241 who were sent back last year. 562 were granted transportation to points in the interior, as compared with 634 who were sent to various parts of the United States in the year 1899. Of those who were returned to Europe, the great majority were individuals who had become incapacitated and who would have become charges on the community had they remained here. Under the circumstances, it was deemed advisable to return them to their relatives on the other side. Of those transported to the interior, 155 were sent to Colorado. These were nearly all cases of consumptives who were sent there with the hope that they might recover their health. In no case, however, was transportation granted unless the applicant demonstrated that he had sufficient means to enable him to support himself while in Colorado or that he had friends there who were prepared to take care of him. The report of the treasurer will show that whereas $11,554.71 were expended for transportation, $6,922.52 were received on this account from those to whom tickets were granted.

Auxiliary Society.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors, held in February last, it was decided to grant to the Auxiliary Society, which had been in existence for a numbers of years, the privilege of opening an office in the lower section of the city for the purpose of taking applications for relief and for the establishment of an Auxiliary Employment Bureau.

Since this meeting the Auxiliary Society has opened its branch office at 227 East Broadway, and has been of material benefit to the work of the society. It has since its opening taken 2,376 applications for relief, which were then referred to the parent society for action. This means that 2,376 applicants applied within a few blocks of their homes for assistance instead of being compelled to come to the office of the United Hebrew Charities. Besides this they issued 702 doctors' orders to cases where a physician was an urgent need. The peculiarity of its Employment Bureau is that it attempts to handle applicants for whom our Employment Bureau finds difficulty in securing work. This has reference in particular to very recent arrivals who have no knowledge of the language and who can obtain work only among store-keepers and manufacturers who reside on the East Side. Since the office was opened the Employment Bureau has recorded 812 applications for work and has secured 326 positions, an efficiency of 40 per cent. Of more recent growth is a sisterhood organized under the auspices of the Auxiliary Society, which will begin work during the coming fall, and it is hoped that within the next few years additional sisterhoods will spring into existence to take charge of the congested districts on the lower East Side, which are at present not covered by any sisterhood.

Federation of Sisterhoods.

In this connection the work of the Federation of Sisterhoods is apropos. All of the Sisterhoods which have been connected with the Federation during the past year have done faithful and efficient work and too much cannot be said for work of this kind which has been so well described as being done "without money and without price." It is the hope of your manager that the day will come when the entire city will be so thoroughly districted that each dependent family can be placed in the hands of a friendly visitor connected with some sisterhood, so as not to be compelled constantly to return to the office of the United Hebrew Charities and make application for assistance.

"Self-Supporting Fund."

Through the generosity of our ever-kind friend, Mr. Jacob H. Schiff, the Relief Committee has been given the opportunity during the past year to attempt an experiment in making some of our families self-supporting. The $5,000 which Mr. and Mrs. Schiff so kindly gave for this purpose has been expended by the Relief Committee in sums varying from $25 to $200, and the recipients thereof have been established in various small enterprises such as stands, grocery stores, etc., and have been given the means to purchase stock of various kinds. A rough investigation made as to the present condition of those who have been so established indicates that about 50 per cent. of the cases have been successful. It is, however, still too early to determine the actual result of such an experiment, and your manager hopes in his next annual report to present an exhaustive study of what should be one of the most beneficial methods of alleviating distress among our worthy poor. One example of the results obtained from assistance of this character may be in order. Mrs. T., a widow with four children, aged respectively ten, eight, five and three years, was started in a candy store in June, 1899, the Relief Committee having appropriated $60 for the purpose.

Even after being placed in business, it was twice found necessary to pay her rent, amounting to $13. After a few months the venture took on another phase, and the woman began to earn her living. She recently appeared before the Relief Committee with the statement that she had sold a half interest in her store for $90, and returned $50 of the money that had been given to her. A few weeks ago the partners were offered $200 for their business, but refused that offer.

National Conference of Jewish Charities.

In June last the National Conference of Jewish Charities held its first annual meeting in Chicago, and your society was represented by the Secretary and by the Manager. The subjects of greatest importance that were discussed there were the regulation of transportation, the care of the consumptive and desertions. Rules and regulations for the guidance of the various societies constituting the conference were laid down, and the organization gives every evidence of long and active existence and is well worthy of the support that can be given it by our organization.

During the year the National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives in Denver opened its doors, and at present has accommodations for sixty people. It is the purpose of the management to double the capacity of the hospital in the very near future. As stated in the Manager's last report, no question is so prominently before the Jewish public as that of tuberculosis, and for this reason the National Jewish Hospital deserves the support of one and all.

Immigration.

Of vital interest to the work of our organization is the report of the Immigration Bureau respecting the Jewish immigrants arriving at this port, since no factor enters so largely into the question of the character and kind and in particular of the amount of relief which we are called upon to distribute. Attention has already been called to the fact that 37 per cent. of the new applicants who applied last year had been in the United States less than twelve months. Fifty per cent. have been here less than five years. Of both the new and recurrent applicants, it may safely be said that the greater bulk are immigrants who have come here within the last ten years, and that there is practically no American-born Jewish pauper class.

In the year 1898-99, 29,088 Jewish immigrants arrived at the Barge Office, being 8,018 in excess of the previous year. During 1899-1900, 53,687 immigrants arrived, and of these 40,827 took up their residence in the city of New York. This is the largest number of immigrants that has arrived here since 1891. What is particularly noticeable in this year's immigration is the fact that while the percentage of Russian and Galician immigrants has slightly decreased, the percentage of Roumanian immigrants has more than trebled. In 1898-99, of the total immigration, 55 per cent. were Russians, 37 per cent. were Austrians, and Galicians, and 5 per cent. Roumanians. During the present year 50 per cent. were Russians, 30 per cent. Austrians and Galicians, and 16 per cent. Roumanians. The increase in the number of Roumanians is caused by the exodus that has recently taken place from that country.

During the past summer a number of our philanthropic citizens undertook to assist the Roumanian immigrants who were coming to these shores by furnishing them with the necessities of life and eventually furnishing them with transportation to various points throughout the United States where employment had been previously secured. The entire movement was conducted under the auspices of the Independent Order B'ne B'rith, which through its district committees and lodges undertook to establish these immigrants and to make them self-supporting. Since the movement began nearly one thousand persons have been sent to points as far west as San Francisco to positions that were waiting for them. If this Committee has done nothing else it has at least demonstrated that it is possible by a concerted movement to transport a considerable number of our co-religionists from New York to other cities and towns, and to find opportunities in many branches of trade for them to earn respectable and honest livelihoods. I have mentioned the success of this committee, as it gives me an opportunity of bringing to your notice what I deem the most important topic that can be given to you for your consideration, viz.: the congestion that exists throughout the east side to-day and the evils that result from it.

Those of you who visited the Tenement House Exhibition last winter will doubtless remember the model of a block of houses on Canal street, which are inhabited by over 2,300 human beings, but which are without a single bath tub, and which contain over 400 windowless rooms. And this block was but typical of others that are to be found in this section, which contains more people to the acre than any other city in the world.

In a recent address which Max Nordau made before the Zionist Congress, in which he inveighed against the "bankruptcy of philanthropy," as he termed it, the statement was made by him that it was useless for the Roumanian immigrants to come to the United States, since it was simply a question whether they would perish from starvation three months later in America, instead of three months earlier in Europe. Mr. Nordau's statement, it is evident, was based on an incomplete knowledge of the fact, and requires no refutation here, but it sounds a note of warning to us to which we may well listen.

From the reports that have been read you have gleaned the information that relief amounting to $120,000 was distributed among our applicants. From what I have been able to ascertain, this is less per capita than is given by any Jewish relief society in the United States. I am furthermore convinced that had the United Hebrew Charities been in a position to distribute double or even treble the above amount, the relief granted would have been in most cases merely palliative, and would but temporarily have relieved misery that is due to conditions beyond the reach of ordinary philanthropic effort.

What these conditions are it is easy to learn. By its geographical position the city of New York has peculiar limitations with respect to population, which may not be overstepped without a serious menace to the community. As a matter of fact, we have long since passed the boundaries of normal housing, and we are beginning to reap the harvest of poverty and crime and immorality which are the natural concomitants of such abnormal congestion. It is useless for us to disguise the fact. Vices are springing up among our co-religionists which were formerly unknown, and there cannot be the faintest doubt to the careful observer that they are directly traceable to the settlement of numbers of our people in districts that are overcrowded and unfit to live in.

I believe the time is ripe for the Jews of New York to attempt a solution of this grave problem. More than this, I am convinced from the results of the past summer that it is possible to organize a permanent organization in this community, whose duty it shall be to distribute the thousands for whom there is at present no room together with those who may in the future seek a refuge on these shores, among the less densely populated cities and towns throughout the United States. There is reason to believe that our sister communities and our national organizations engaged in philanthropic work have been awakened to the realization that the city of New York has its limitations and that its ability to absorb and assimilate thousands of our co-religionists has already been overtaxed. With this awakening comes the desire to be of service, and unless all signs fail, we may expect our brethren throughout the country to give active support to a movement which contemplates the breaking up of the so-called New York Ghetto. That large sums of money will be needed for the prosecution of such a movement goes without saying. The investment, however, will be one rich in rewards, since it will be applied along the lines of that broader philanthropy which aims at the permanent benefit of the recipient. As such, like bread upon the waters, it will come back to us in the shape of a community of which we may be justly proud, and which will do much to enhance the fair name that Israel has acquired in this truly God-given country.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LEE K. FRANKEL,

Manager.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF HEBREW CHARITIES.

DELEGATE'S REPORT.

The first annual meeting of the National Conference of Jewish Charities was held in Chicago, Ill., on June 11, 12 and 13, 1900.

Delegates from over thirty-five cities were present, and the proceedings were marked by the reading of interesting papers and excellent discussion.

On Monday, Prof. Morris Loeb of New York City read a paper on "Federation vs. Consolidation of Jewish Charities in a City." In this paper the author deprecated the present methods of obtaining funds for charitable societies by means of fairs, entertainments, etc., and recommended more concerted action in bringing to the notice of the community the charitable institutions in its midst. Prof. Loeb suggested as an alternative for the present system, a scheme of federation wherein the various societies retained their individuality, but received their appropriations from a common treasury.

On Tuesday, June 12, a paper by Dr. Milton Reitzenstein of New York, on the "Relations of Bad Housing and Poverty" was read.

In a paper on "Tuberculosis as affecting Jewish Charities," Dr. Lee K. Frankel of New York called attention to the fact that consumption was on the increase among the poorer classes of Jews, and statistics collected from the various cities throughout the country demonstrated this fact. He said that the medical profession was to-day almost unanimously of the opinion that special climatic conditions were no longer necessary for the cure of tuberculosis, and for this reason he suggested that each constituent society in the Conference should endeavor to secure the establishment of sanatoria for the treatment of this disease near their respective communities.

The report of the "Committee on Wife Desertions" was prepared by its chairman, Mr. Nathan Bijur, and elicited much discussion, and action thereon was referred to the Executive Committee.

In the exercises of Tuesday afternoon, devoted to the matter of friendly visiting, Dr. Frankel gave an informal talk.

It will thus be seen that the New York members of the Conference were prominent in the proceedings, and the marked attention that was paid to Dr. Frankel's paper and his various explanations of the work of this society showed how much the Conference appreciated our wisdom in placing the management of the society in the hands of a gentleman who is devoting his entire time to its interests.

As delegate of this society I was re-elected one of the Vice-Presidents for the ensuing two years and presided at Tuesday's sessions of the Conference. The Executive Committee of last year was re-elected, with the exception of Mr. Pels of Baltimore, who was replaced by Mr. Myer H. Levy of San Francisco.

The work of the Conference may be summarized as follows:

A—The adoption of uniform rules and regulations regarding the transportation of applicants from one city to another.

B—The care of the consumptive poor.

C—The establishment of a systematic telegraphic code between cities to be used by the various constituents of the Conference.

D—The recommendation of a uniform system of records to be used by the small communities as well as by the larger cities and the publication of annual reports after some uniform plan.

The Conference adjourned to meet two years hence, time and place to be selected by the Executive Committee.

I. S. ISAACS.
